Seniors Plan Spring Party

As the end of the semester approaches, OU seniors are finding many activities crowded into the short time left. One high point of the semester discussed at last Wednesday's senior meeting, was the Senior Dinner Dance to be held May 28, at the Rome Hotel.

The party will center around a New Year's Eve theme, and will be labeled "Top Hats of '53," and will feature the new adventures of graduating seniors. Those in attendance will dance to the music of Eddy Haddad and his orchestra.

Other business that took place at the senior meeting included a talk by John E. Woods, Director of Placement. Woods emphasized that every graduating senior should get in contact with him to fill out credentials to be used for references later.

Aksel Schmidt, senior class president, made several committee appointments. Syntha Judd was appointed as chairman of the collection committee for senior fees. Working under Judd are Bob O'Neill, Gary Anderson, Ann Pane, Pat Cahow, and Pat Johnson. The deadline for payment of senior fees is set for April 1, 1953.

The dues may be paid in the check room window in the first floor hall starting Monday morning. The window will be open daily from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Heading the gift committee for the 1954 grads is Don Fitch, senior class vice-president. With Fitch on the committee are Burt McMillan, Bob Rubenstein, and Margaret Jones.

May 22 will be senior day at the University. Jim Townsend will serve as head of this committee. Helping Townsend are Roger Cross, Mary Ann Conley, Ray Hampton, Kathleen McKissick and Joan Mendes.

Band Plans Pop Concert Mar. 13

Three pop concerts and the Maie Day parade highlight the calendar for the band this semester. In addition, Dr. Robert Fiester said that the band will also play for the commencement and graduation exercises.

The first student concert will be Friday, Mar. 13. It will be a well-rounded program for everyone, featuring soloists, novelty numbers and group singing.

The third concert will be held in Elmwood Park at the site of the community sings while the audience relaxes on the golf course.

The 50-player band is hoping for sweaters for these informal concerts.

The ROTC band is now functioning with 32 pieces and will make its appearance this spring in reviews and inspections.

During the first three weeks of the summer session, an all-city band will be organized from local high school and college talent for concentrated rehearsals and one concert.

Staff Finishes Five Sections

"We have 75 per cent of the Tomahawk finished," said Larry Boersma triumphantly. The editor of the 1953 yearbook announced today that the senior section and Greeks have been sent in to Denison Yearbook Company in Minneapolis, Minn. This is the first year the Tomahawk has been printed by a regular yearbook company.

Other completed sections are spring and fall sports, spring social events, and beauty contest.

Boersma expects the first proofs of the book back by next Wednesday.

Barbara Frederiksen is the new associate editor of the '53 book. Miss Frederiksen replaces Frank Schuchart, who resigned because of outside duties. He will continue on the staff as assistant to the Editor. Burt McMillan, last semester's Gateway editor, also has joined the Tomahawk staff as assistant to the Editor.

The new editor is being chosen early this year so that he can gain experience working with the retiring editor.

Ross, a journalism major, has studied for three years at an Omaha art school, and is now a free lance illustrator for Mutual of Omaha's house publication, "Mutterings."

Reston and Four Questions

Stalin Gives James Reston Answer About Possible War

Next Thursday and Friday nights, James Barrett Reston, famed New York Times correspondent and Pulitzer Prize winner, will give the Tenth Annual Baxter Lectures.

Reston will speak on "The Price of Freedom" at the first lecture, and "The Missouri, the Rhine and Yalu" at the Friday evening talk.

Both programs begin at 8 p.m. and the admission is free.

Four Questions

On Dec. 18, Reston wrote Stalin asking four questions concerning international relations. Georgi N. Zarubin, Russian ambassador to the United States, presented Stalin's answers to Reston.

Reston: "At the beginning of the new year is it still your conviction that the USSR and the US can live peacefully?"

Stalin: "I still believe that war cannot be considered inevitable."

Reston: "Wherein lies the sources of present world contention in your judgment?"

Stalin: "Everywhere and in everything wherever the aggressive actions of the policies of the 'cold war' against the Soviet Union find expression."

Reston: "Would you welcome diplomatic conversations with a representative of the new Eisenhower administration, possibly a meeting with Eisenhower on easing world tension?"

Stalin: "I regard this suggestion favorably."

Reston: "Would you co-operate in any new diplomatic approach to ending the war in Korea?"

Stalin: "I agree to co-operate because the USSR is interested in ending the war in Korea."

Served Press Bureaus

Born in Scotland but educated in the United States, Reston joined the New York Times London Bureau in 1939. He later served for both the national and international Times bureaus.

His interpretative coverage of the Dumbarton Oaks Security Conference earned for him the coveted Pulitzer Prize in 1944.

Number One AngelGabriel on Campus . . .

Phyllis Wilke, Flight Leader of the Angels, is a charter member of that group, and was elected Honorary Major at the '52 AF-ROTC Military Ball. Phyl is kept busy with activities connected with the Flight. She has appeared on WOW-TV with the Arnold Air Society, and christened the United Air Lines new passenger ship, the Convair. Following the christening at a banquet the company presented her with one dozen roses and a wrist watch.

Mountaineer

Although persons on campus who are acquainted with Phyllis would call her anything but a backslider, Phyl says she did plenty of this while climbing mountains last summer at Yellowstone. "Some of them are really dangerous," was her comment. Phyllis loves the West in general and mountains in particular. She has traveled in the western states of California, Montana, Wyoming, Utah, Texas, and Arizona.

While at Yellowstone, Phyl was crowned, Fifi, Queen of the Dining Room, on "Savage Day," the park's annual play day for employees. Her biggest thrill however, was catching her first fish, an 18-inch mountain trout.

Home Ec Major

Phyl, a Home Economic major, plans to demonstrate appliances when she graduates. Right now she is demonstrating how to make cookies, brownies, chocolate pudding, cinnamon toast, and salads to a group of 12 children at Christ Child Center. Instructor Phyl says the tiny kitchen is in constant turmoil because of the children's ages; however, they behave pretty well. Her pupils take their concoctions home to their mothers—mostly on the front of their clothes.

Phyllis is a member of Chi Omega sorority and believes "that a sorority gives a girl a feeling of belonging and a common aim and purpose with other girls." She has acted as rush chairman for the group.

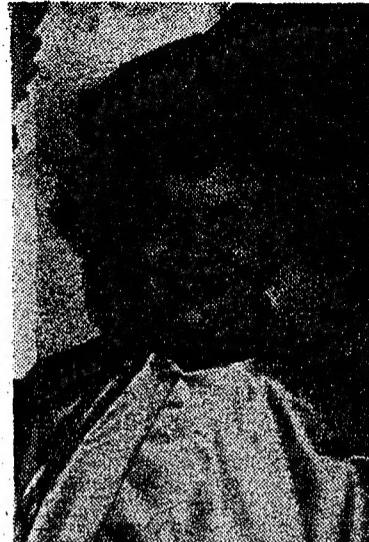

Soprano Songstress

Some of Phyl's activities include OUWI, the Home Ec Club, and singing in "Anything Goes." Incidentally if you haven't heard Phyl sing you've missed hearing a fine soprano voice.

Philly, as she is called by her Dad, is a junior representative on the Student Council, and acts as Parliamentarian for the group.

By the time Phyl wades through three or four new Constitutions she says she'd rather have any other job on the Council.

However, Phyllis likes Omaha U. and does a good job of whatever she's asked to do. . . . Fat.

Phyllis . . . Angel Flight leader.

Economic Student Misses the Point

"The one that got away" was being used as an illustration of wealth in Roderic Crane's lecture to his Economics class.

Crane attempted to explain to the students that the fish that was caught had wealth, but when it wiggled off the hook, and got away it lacked wealth.

Satisfied that he had driven his point home, Crane invited class discussion. A youth in the middle of the room immediately came up with the following comment:

"Sir, as far as I can understand, the story neither attests to the wealth of the fish nor to your ability as a fisherman."

Tech Institute Offers Courses Downtown

The Technical Institutes division of the University of Omaha offers courses for people who work in downtown firms," said Dean C. W. Helmstaedter, head of the Tech Institute. "Students can help the University by bringing these courses to the attention of their parents and friends," he added.

Successful Salesmanship, one of the courses, will teach lasting techniques in the 12-week course on Wednesday night. This class will start Mar. 4 under the instruction of Ted Williams.

Too Bad, Isn't It?

Omaha University students have proved that history repeats itself.

And the above pictures show history, a disreputable history of Omaha University.

In 1948, the University furnished the lounge with leather chairs, modern coffee tables, magazine racks and a carpet.

By the Spring of 1949, the chairs were torn, the coffee tables and carpet were ruined.

In 1953 the Maintenance crew resorted to hard top arm coverings, and prayer. Since the fall, every piece of furniture has been damaged.

The University has dropped enough hints. You've taken them. But we think you must like it this way. Because history has repeated itself.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Wha' happen? Two years ago I left for the army. At that time I didn't like the idea but everyone else was going so I was game. My main thought while serving was, "Oh, to be back at OU again. No uniforms, no officers, no military at all."

A short time ago I enrolled again. But now OU has a large school for training Greyhound bus drivers. But they can't be that. Some of them have V's on their arms. Others have V's on their shoulders. Those that look like post-grads have bars and other types of metalware.

Overseas we heard of Captain Video, the rage of the nation. Now we have the pleasure of meeting his Space Cadets. From Junior Jets to Senior Jaybirds in four easy years.

We had the same thing in the army. Uncle Sam has the cute little idea of letting these kids lead a platoon, thus pinpointing it for target practice by the enemy.

Better get your assignments in, fellows, or mean old Uncle Sam will take away your deferments. Attention, gentlemen. I say . . . ahem . . . attention please.

DRAFTED VET.

Dear Editor:

The University of Omaha has, among its courses and activities, dancing, military drill, athletics, and all manner of physical education. A good portion of the total field of endeavor of the University consists of educating physically as well as mentally. Therefore, as there are scholarships for those who show exceptional mental prowess, we think there should also be scholarships for those who show exceptional physical prowess. I am in favor of a policy that would allow athletic scholarships. A Student

Life Magazine Photographs Bail

Two photographers from Life Magazine interrupted library inhabitants Wednesday morning while taking pictures of President Milo Ball in front of the Congressional records.

Dr. Ball's picture will be used in an advertisement in the magazine in the series about "What happens when Life hits the newsstands in Omaha."

The advertisement will appear in about six weeks.

New Board in Use

A new master circuit has been installed in one of the three legs of the stage lighting switchboard.

Jack Adwers, Supt. of Bldg. and Grounds, said that a more professional lighting job will be possible with the new addition.

The unit will be used for the first time today in the presentation of "Anything Goes."

Jailbait . . .

Two students were discussing the recent purchase of a car of ancient vintage over a cup of coffee in the Student Center.

"We paid all of $35 for the car," said the first student, "and we can't get a safety sticker for it."

"Yeah, I know," replied the second driver, "and that's why we had better refer to it as 'jailbait'."

Guilty or Not Guilty

The Placement Office has been without a secretary much of the last week.

The work is piling up on the desks, and a certain amount of the efficiency of the office is lacking.

But all should be back in order shortly when Mrs. Thelma Engle finishes her term of jury duty.

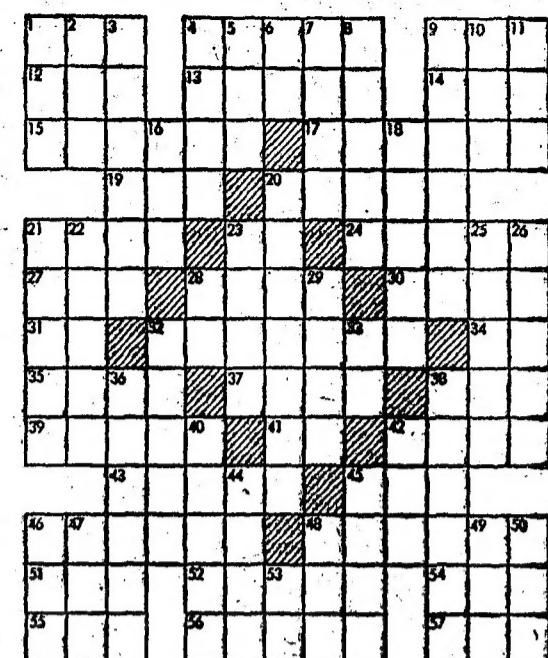

From where I'm sitting, tolerance is just a big word for peace. War can't get going where there's a sympathetic understanding of nation for nation, man for man, and creed for creed.—Bing Crosby.

Students Investigate Gateway Readership

Even the Gateway has been investigated!

The paper has undergone a critical questionnaire analysis. Gateway members Joanne Larkin and Burt McMillan, in conjunction with a Journalism Research course, have interviewed students, teachers and parents inquiring about their reactions to the student publication.

Out of the many questions, the pollsters concluded that the most immediate benefit of the survey applied to advertising and business management. The figures showed a definite readership of advertisements giving salesmen the proof that the ads are scanned by 44 per cent of the student body and that the newspaper reaches about 64 per cent of the students' homes.

More Accuracy

The survey brought out the fact that nearly all of the readers are extremely conscious of the small factual and typographical errors which occasionally crop up in the Gateway. This result was demonstrated by the many comments asking for "more accuracy" and "better proofreading," and brought out even more in the severe criticism of the pictures.

The poll showed that most of the Gateway's readers are attracted to an article by its headline. A picture with the article also gained a large percentage of student attraction.

Constructive Criticism

On the types of news, suggestions were made for more stories about job placement, more originality, no society page, and removal of the paper from school supervision.

Among the faculty interviewed, about 75 per cent said they read each issue. The faculty showed the most interest in the editorial and news columns of the paper.

In a general review of faculty response, a safe conclusion would be that faculty members read the student newspaper quite carefully and often.

Faculty Response

An interesting reaction to faculty response were the comments for more humor, more human interest and more by-lines of student writing.

The University's parents showed the least interest of the groups interviewed. Of the thirty families interviewed, only 12 said that they read every issue. Parents were most interested in news; with society, and features following. Sports and editorials rated last.

About half of the parents had no suggestions for improvement, but a few of them made such comments as "throw the whole thing out and start over," "less repetition of news coverage," "more and better pictures" and "less advertising."

Generally, the pictures received a low score. Most of the students, parents and faculty thought that the pictures should be more clear and recognizable.

Many students also felt that there should be a lot less advertising. However, the fact must be brought out that the Gateway receives one-half of its income from the advertisements which appear and until additional budget money is allocated toward student publications, the advertising will have to stay.

Army Engineers Plan Student Aid Summer Program

Students studying engineering may have an opportunity to have practical experience during the summer, while earning top apprentice salaries. The Corps of Engineers of the U. S. Army announced that a proposed plan for recruiting aids for local work is being considered.

Students with two years of Engineering education would earn $2750 per year or about $225 a month for summer work. Each additional year's education brings a rate increase. For three years, the aid will receive $2950; for four, $3110.

There is a critical shortage of professional engineers for construction projects overseas. Vacancies exist for skilled administrative technicians, architects, draftsmen, engineering aids, geologists and accountants. This program is of top interest to graduates.

In overseas construction work, there is an opportunity to earn from $3410 to $10,500 annually.

Five Win Promotions

Five Air Force ROTC students received promotions this week. Major Robert E. Whaley, commandant of cadets, announced that Frank Schuchart has passed his written and practical examinations for major.

Other promotions were James Klein, first lieutenant; Harper Buck, staff sergeant; Richard Matthews, sergeant, and Richard Kimball, corporal.

Student Union Group Plans Building Site

Architectural plans for the site of the proposed Student Union were recommended at the weekly meeting of the Student Union Committee Tuesday afternoon.

Early blueprints call for the construction of the building at a point north and west of the Fieldhouse. The Union will face east.

The dormitory wings will extend west from the edifice according to layouts by architects John Latenser and Sons.

Another recommendation was advanced in combining the ballroom and the lounge like the Student Union at Iowa University.

Debaters Win, Lose Three; Hold Frosh Practice Debates

Four Omaha University debaters "batted .500" at the University of Denver last weekend. Both OU teams won three and lost three debates in the Rocky Mountain Regional Tournament.

The team of Duane Post and Ted Romberg defeated teams from the University of Colorado at Boulder, Colorado State Teachers College at Greeley and the University of Utah at Salt Lake.

A coed team of Sharon Erdkamp and Jean Hednar defeated teams from Loretta Heights College and Denver University, both in Denver, and Colorado A and M at Fort Collins.

Grand winner of the tourney was an undefeated team from the University of New Mexico.

Tuesday afternoon University debaters were host to novice debate teams from Creighton, Midland and Nebraska universities. J. D. Tyson, debate coach, said that three rounds of debate were held "as practice for newly formed teams or beginning debaters."

The next tourney of the debaters' schedule is the University of Nebraska's Invitational Tournament on Feb. 27 and 28.

Students To File For April Test

All male students who hope to be in school next year should file application now for the Selective Service College Qualification Test.

The test will be given April 23. Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 9. Early filing will be greatly to the student's advantage.

Applications and bulletins of information may be obtained at any local Selective Service Board.

An unsolicited testimonial from an ardent golfer to a hosiery manufacturer: "Fifteen minutes after putting on a pair of your socks I made a hole in one."

Placement Office Offers Job Info

A new bulletin board in the Placement Office now has brochures from 168 companies. There are an additional 50 brochures available for student information on career fields. John E. Woods, director of Placement, said it should be a great aid to seniors seeking employment after graduation.

Two businessmen will visit the University to interview students.

Vice-president George A. Harper from the Bankers Life of Des Moines will be on campus Feb. 20.

Robert J. Canning of General Electric interviewed 13 University students last week. He was well pleased with the way the school has set up placement facilities.

Mr. Canning commented especially on the new bulletin board. He is going to forward a commendation of the system to the Secretary-Editor of the Association of School and College Placement Services and a copy to the University of Pennsylvania.

Korean Vets Must Sign Pay Forms

Veterans, P. L. 550, wishing to receive their G.I. Bill checks about the 20th of each month must sign in at the Registrar's Office between the first and fifteenth of the month. All Korea Vets beginning this semester at Omaha U. must bring their VA Form 7-1993, the form qualifying vets for schooling, to the office as soon as possible.

Fourteen credit hours are the minimum a veteran can carry to be eligible for full payments. Those carrying less and who desire to increase their hours should see their counselors immediately for special permission to change their schedules.

Absences from classes are now reported to the government. If absence is for health reasons, check in with the Health Office before returning to classes. Those absent for other reasons must bring a note with the reason the classes were missed.

A veteran may have one change of major in his school career. Any other changes disqualifies him for compensation. Vets should report any intention of change to the Registrar before taking action.

Class Oriented Pupils on Tax

Omaha University's TV Classroom currently is offering a four-week course designed to orient the television viewer with the federal income tax.

Sponsored by the College of Adult Education, "Your Federal Income Tax," the seventh series of TV Classroom, is televised from 2 to 2:15 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Paul T. Crossman, professor of business administration, is in charge of the program that will continue to Mar. 13.

One semester hour of college credit is granted for successful course completion.

Certified Public Accountant, Professor Crossman will explain the history and reasons for the federal income tax and its beginning in the United States.

Discussion on all phases of national law relative to personal tax returns will be featured on the video lectures.

Another highlight will be written questions submitted by the students that will be incorporated into the TV class.

Professor Crossman is president of the Omaha chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants.

Drive Brings Alumni Funds From 11 States

"Contributions for the Omaha U. Alumni Association have been received from 11 states," said Tom Townsend, Association Secretary. "States as far away as New York, California, Pennsylvania and Texas are included."

Forty former students met last Saturday in the University auditorium for a Fund Drive Dinner. Dr. Milo Ball, University President, and Dan Koukol, fund drive chairman, were the speakers.

The group met to receive their assignments for personal contact to raise money to expand the Association and aid the school. Over 700 alumni will be contacted during the two-week drive which started Feb. 14th.

After the meeting, the group attended the Omaha U.-Creighton basketball game.

Other states represented by contributions were Oklahoma, Kansas, Minnesota, South Dakota, Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska.

Claussen and "friend" . . . Unknown Sterling College turned from lambs to lions Wednesday night at the Fieldhouse, and the Indians just escaped with a 73 to 72 victory.

The Indians did not look as sharp as they did against Creighton. The passing was bad on both sides. Bob Moscrey was the big gun for OU, collecting 15 points.

Indians Host OU Travels To Doane Five To Simpson

Doane College will be the opposition tomorrow night when the Indians play their last home game of the season in the Fieldhouse.

The contest will be the second meeting of the season between the two clubs. In the first game, played on Doane's maples, the Red and Black trounced the Tigers, 89-40.

The OU hoopsters were terrifically hot that night, as they had a better than 50 per cent average on their field goal attempts.

The Tigers have only four returning lettermen from last year's squad which finished the season with a five won, 14 lost record. Returning veterans are Jerry Troester, Larry Tesar, Don Pisar, all seniors, and sophomore Pete Eddy, Omaha North grad.

The Aud Givens tutored crew are led in the scoring column by Pisar and Troester. Pisar, 6-foot 5-inch center, is the squad's leading scorer and ranks tenth in the Nebraska College Conference, of which Doane belongs. Troester, 6-foot guard, holds down second place in the team scoring column.

The Tigers' new transfer from McCook Junior College, 6-foot 4-inch Clarence Cook, has proved to be a valuable addition to the Doane crew. The lanky forward was a constant threat to the Indians in the first meeting of this season.

Baseball Nine Look to NCAA

Baseball lettermen are beginning to work out. The potential players are anxious to get into shape, and this season could prove to be the best Omaha University fans have seen in a long time.

Don Maseman, Bob Offerjost, Terry Doyle, Terry Bowman, Lee Nelson, Roger Orr, Bob Mackie, Aksel Schmidt, Larry Brehm and Steve Marinkovich are lettermen who will have to work hard to get back their positions on the OU nine.

Many outstanding freshmen will be out to earn a starting position on the team. Dave Langevin, Bill Steck, Bob Burns and Dick Tannahill are a few of the boys with plenty of experience. Dave Langevin, and Bill Steck, former North High stars, were selected for the All-City squad.

Coach Virgil Yelkin said he expects a big turnout for the coming season, and that no one position on the team is cinched.

If there is any chance at all the Omaha University baseball squad would like to earn a position in the NCAA Baseball Tournament.

Don Claussen is still leading the OU scoring, with 289 points, but Mackie's 26 points in the Creighton tussle put him at 281 points,

AF Rifle Team Gains Two Range Victories

The Air Force ROTC rifle team, led by Frank Sedlacek, chalked up two victories on the Omaha rifle range last Friday. Carson rifle Club and the Naval Reserves from Fort Omaha were the victims.

This afternoon the team will take on Creighton University and the Seabees Reserves at Fort Omaha. The team is led by Captain Sedlacek, who is high scorer on the team. Other members to shoot in Fort Omaha are Gil Davis, Darrell Cox, Jerry Welling and Jim Ryan.

On Sunday four members of the women's rifle team will journey to Grand Island. These women will be shooting in the all-important Mid-State Gallery Meet. Traveling to Grand Island are Pat Vorel, Joan Sedlacek, Jo Thorsen and Ruth Longville.

Any girl interested in the women's rifle team still has a chance to make the team. She must be a full-time student and must complete the marksmanship course, which includes the study of rifles, ammunition and the theories of marksmanship.

Turner Tefft of ISA bowled a

233 to lead his team's victory over ROTC. This performance topped the previous individual game record of 225, held by Art Bodette.

Tefft also turned in a 589 series score, which is second only to the 620 done by Hap Hefflinger earlier in the season.

OU Volleyballers Outshine Teachers

Omaha University women physical education majors rolled to a 48 to 20 win over physical education teachers from public schools in an experimental volleyball game Tuesday afternoon in the Qaonset Hut.

The teachers were substitutes for the Duchesne girls, who were scheduled to meet the OU volleyballers. That the teachers were short on players and uncoached caused the great difference in the score.

The first half of the game was played without rotation, and the last half was played with rotation. The Omaha girls playing were Marilyn Rogers, Shirley Barnum, Marilyn Newman, Virginia Stewart, Pat Cosford, Betty Ellsworth and Lilly Moore.

The team is coached by Mary Lou Niebling. She said that the girls show a vivid interest in the practice and games.

The absent Duchesne girls cordially invited the University of Omaha girls to an all-sports day at Duchesne early this spring.

Zeta Tau Alpha 19 35
Independents 16 32

President of the league, Syntha Judd, requests that all teams competing meet promptly at 5 p. m. If a team member cannot bowl she should report to her team captain before the game. A substitute must be secured before the game.

Other league officers are Pat Cosford, secretary, and Joy Miller, treasurer.

Creighton Clips Indians

In Season's 2nd Encounter

Attendance Breaks Fieldhouse Record

For the second straight time this season the Creighton Bluejays dumped the OU cagers, this time by a 89-80 decision in the OU Fieldhouse before 4,500 spectators.

The second meeting of the season proved to be a wild high-scoring contest with both teams constantly matching baskets.

Two little men proved to be the highlights of the game. OU's Bob Mackie and Bluejay Eddie Cole, who sunk the winning basket in the first contest, delighted the spectators with their ability.

Mackie led both teams in scoring as he threw in 26 points, 16 of the points came in the first half. Little Bob had a terrific average the first half as he threw in six out of seven field goals and dunked four for four on the free throw line.

Creighton jumped into an early lead and, by controlling the boards, had a first quarter lead 19-16.

The second stanza proved to be a fast one as both teams stepped up the scoring tempo. OU lead only once during the quarter when Bob Moscrey meshed a long shot to send the Indians in front 34-33, but a hook shot by Elton Tuttle put the Hilltoppers in the lead again, till Fred Shinrock tied the score 40-40 on a free throw as the first half ended.

After the intermission Ray Yost went on a scoring spree and made eight points to shove the Bluejays into another early lead 50-42. But the Indians bounced back with Fred Shinrock doing the scoring and cut the Creightonians' lead to only three points, 64-61, as the third period ended.

Keeping up their early leads the Hilltoppers started the fourth stanza by building up a quick nine point lead 70-61. But Shinrock continued his torrid scoring and kept the Indians in the game until he drew his fifth foul with about two minutes remaining in the contest. Shinrock finished the game with a total of 22 points to be second high scorer, for the both teams, in the game.

With less than 10 seconds remaining in the fray Moscrey potted a long shot to cut the Bluejay lead to eight points, 88-80 but Yost dunked one of his two free throws to make the score 89-80 as the buzzer sounded ending the game.

Mackie, Shinrock and Bob Rose proved to be the only Indians effective against the Hilltoppers. Big Don Claussen, covered carefully throughout the game by Yost and Tuttle, finally shook them loose the last quarter and meshed eight points.

Cole, who fouled out in the fourth quarter, Yost, Tuttle and Komanski proved to be the Creighton leaders.

The Saturday night defeat was the tenth straight defeat for OU by Creighton since the post-war rivalry began. The two near misses this season were the closest contests played since the '49-'50 season when the Bluejays downed the Indians 56-51.

Against Creighton, in the second game, the Indians displayed a 50.8 average as they hit on 30 of 59 field goal attempts. However, the Bluejays only hit on 32 of 74 of the field goal tries, but capitalized on control of the boards as they captured 53 rebounds to OU's 23.

Gorr Watches Ten Top Hurdlers Hustle For Starting Positions on '53 Squad

According to Ernie Gorr, track coach, ten top-notch men are competing for this season's hurdling starting positions.

Roger Dunbier, Bob Schropp, and La Rue Garratt, and Duane Sprick, last year's timber toppers, will have to work hard to keep ahead of the pace-setting freshmen. Some of the newer athletes which have shown promise are Dick May, 180 yard man from North, Dick Westin and Bob and Bill Barnes of Benson, and Bob Gerdean of Abraham Lincoln.

Dunbier is expected to repeat his winning ways of last year. Big Roger holds the Fieldhouse indoor record in the high's, and the University record in the high and low's.

Bob Barnes was shaded out of a Nebraska High School track gold medal by inches last fall. Bill Hawkins of Beatrice was the victor.

"The boys are showing the proper spirit in the training schedule and that is a good sign. Physical condition could be the determining factor as to who breaks the tape at the finish," said Gorr.

With keen competition, the track meets of the coming season will keep the OU tracksters running hard.

The first meet of the indoor season will be in the Fieldhouse Thursday, Mar. 12.

Teams Vie for Championship In 'Mural Playoffs This Week

Game Decides 'Mural Winner'

Pawnees and ROTC meet today at 3 o'clock to determine the champion of the Intramural Basketball Tournament. Both are undefeated and hold impressive victories over all their opponents. They notched important wins last Tuesday to enter the finals. Pawnees edged Blackhawks, 39-34, and ROTC outscored Pi Kappa Alpha, 47-37. The four teams were league winners in regular season play.

The Pawnees led throughout the contest and had too much scoring balance for the Blackhawks. Sharp shooting by Dick Cotton and Ernie Lee accounted for a large part of the winners' total. Harry Johnson played ably under the boards.

Blackhawks had their good moments but could not overcome the nine-point deficit they faced going into the final quarter. Nick Adzick displayed some fancy shooting for the losers.

ROTC Downs Pike Crew

ROTC players had a considerable height advantage over the Pi Kaps and made it pay off. They controlled the boards, due largely to the yeoman-like work of Dan Peterson, who has been the workhorse of the team all season. Dave Meyer, a hard-driving guard, poured in 17 points to pace the winners.

Bud Burianek, with 16, and Aksel Schmidt, with 12, led the Pikes. Burianek was under heavy guarding from Peterson, but he managed to score when he used his hook shot. Schmidt potted most of his from the side.

ROTC led all the way, owning quarter margins of 11-8, 20-14 and 38-25.

Sig Eps Drop Otoes, 63-30

Last Wednesday, Theta Chi won by forfeit from Lambda Chi, and Sig Ep drubbed Otoes, 63-30. This action was in the second place division. The two winners meet next Monday at 1 p.m. The winner will place third in the tournament behind the champion and runner-up, which will be determined in the ROTC-Pawnee tilt.

Bob Chapman went on a scoring rampage to lead the Sig Ep victory. He dropped in 13 field goals and two free throws for a 28-point production. Three players, who paced the scoring, managed only six points apiece. These three were Ken Kremers, Jim Townsend and Harold Sage.

Val Kuffel hit 10 and Steve Marinkovich added six in the futile Otoe attack.

Sig Eps were safely ahead all the way and built up their lead in each quarter. They led 12-8, 19-14, 41-20 and finally 63-30.

ROTC Drops ISA, 48-44

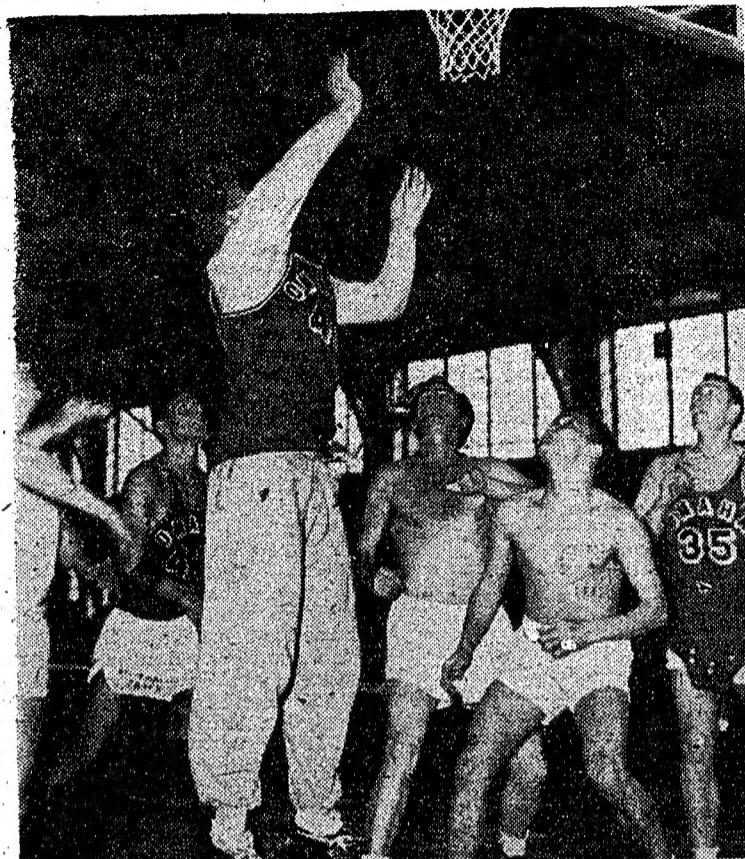

Five games were played last week in the "B" Team Intramural Basketball League. The ROTC dropped Independents 48-44 to remain in first place. They are still undefeated.

Sig Ep won two games, 49-27 over Theta Chi and 39-34 over ISA to stay within a half game of the leaders. ISA won by forfeit from Lambda Chi, and Theta Chi tripped the same team by a 37-20 score.

Roger Dunbier and Bob Peck were the leaders in the two Sig Ep victories. Dunbier collected 20 points and Peck 14 in the win over Theta Chi. Peck hit 20 against ISA.

Larry Means paced Theta Chi's second win of the season with 13 counters.

In the only "B" game played this week, Pi K A downed Theta Chi, 4-31. Dusty Decker dropped in 15 points and Charlie Platt and

Tom Romberg added 10 each. Jerry Tannahill led Theta Chi with eight.

"B" Team Standings

	W.	L.
ROTC	4	0
Sig Ep	4	1
Pi K A	3	2
Theta Chi	2	2
ISA	1	4

The final game of the league will be played next Thursday, Feb. 26, at 1 p.m. between ROTC and Theta Chi. If the ROTC team loses, then they will have to share the title with Sig Ep.

Volleyball Tourney Starts Monday

The five-team Men's Volleyball Round Robin Tournament begins Monday. Each team plays four times, all within a four day period. Some teams will play twice in the same day. All games will be the best two-out-of-three sets, and games will be played to 15.

Competition in badminton and table tennis starts next week, too. All schedules are being posted today and may be seen in the Fieldhouse and in the lockerroom.

Fraternity Hoop Tourney Opens

The annual Interfraternity Basketball Tournament opens Monday at 1 p.m., in the Fieldhouse. The meet, which is a round-robin affair, is open only to the five social fraternities at OU. Phi Epsilon Pi did not enter a team. Each of the four teams will play three games. Lambda Chi and Theta Chi met in the Intramural Tourney so will not have to play again. Theta Chi won by forfeit.

All teams in the meet are fortified with several good players, and any team is capable of upsetting another. A first-place tie is not impossible.

Pairings for the tournament:

Monday, 1 p.m.—Sig Ep vs. Theta Chi.

Tuesday, 1 p.m.—Pi K A vs. Lambda Chi.

Wednesday, 1 p.m.—Pi K A vs. Theta Chi.

Wednesday, 2 p.m.—Lambda Chi vs. Sig Ep.

Thursday, 1 p.m.—Pi K A vs. Sig Ep.

On the basis of performances so far, Sig Ep looms as the strong choice to win.

Pisasale Combines Scholarship, Athletics While Coaching Tennis

By Larry Means

Fred Pisasale, four-year tennis player for the Indians, returns this year to coach the crew. Versatile Fred, who also lettered in wrestling and captained the 1950 squad, is working on his Master of Science degree in Public School Administration.

Among some of the tennis of regular competition.

Smilin' Fred also racked up a High School State Wrestling championship at Central in 1946 and won his weight division in the Mid-West A.A.U. wrestling meets in 1946, '49 and '50. He also grappled in armed services matches.

The athletic whiz expressed his opinion of the possibility for wrestling on the Indian campus: "It's a great sport and should be included in the future, especially with all the talent enrolled at OU."

Scores Scholastically

Athletic activities haven't kept Mr. Pisasale out of honors in the scholastic field. He is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary fraternity, and his grades in graduate work last semester included 15 hours of A's. He made the Dean's Honor roll four-times as an undergraduate.

His easy smile and good humor have been his selling points among the students and faculty as well. Fred was elected vice-president of the "O" club.

Dean Pflasterer, tennis coach last year, said, "Fred proved himself as one of the finest tennis players in the mid-west during his college career. Other players as well as myself respect his ability as well as his personal character, which is tops."

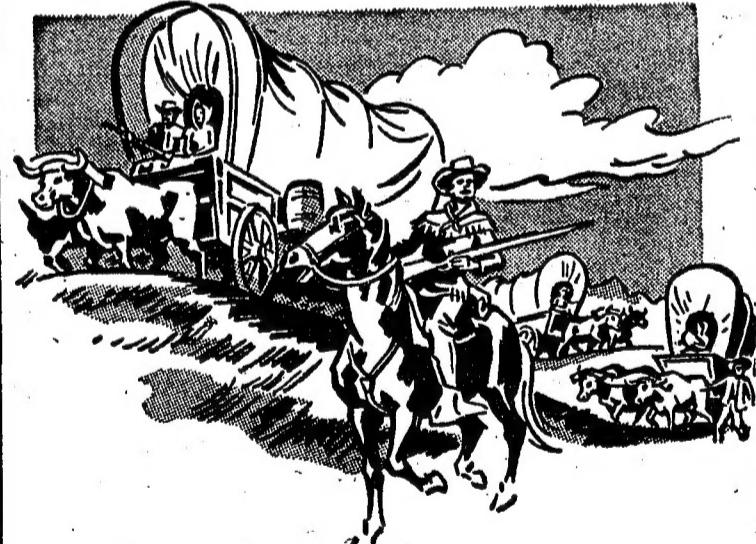

Lettermen Return

When Coach Fred Pisasale takes over as tennis coach this spring, he will have the support of Tom Burke, Don Blocker, Brendon Gallagher, Dale Womar and Carl Carlson, all returning lettermen.

The team will be defending the courts against Nebraska University in the opening match. They are going to have to play top-notch matches to compare with last year's 12 won and two lost record.

Pi Kappa Alpha active-alumni banquet will be held on the evening of Feb. 22, in the Cape Cod room of the Hilltop House.

The celebration will be in commemoration of the fraternity's National Founder's Day and the first anniversary of the Omaha Delta Chi chapter as a member of a national fraternity.

The National Field Secretary of Pi Kappa Alpha, John Horton, will be the principle speaker.

Pledges who will be activated are Gene Anderson, Ken Ford, Ron Smith, Marvin Decker, Dick Matthews, Kyle Petit, Dave Langevin, Dick Rentschler, Charles French, and Warren Hopson.

Kansas Activation

Lambda Chi Alpha's colony of pledges and actives will go to the Lambda Chi chapter at Kansas State, Manhattan, Kan., to activate eight last semester pledges.

The activation will take place during the weekend of March 6, 7 and 8. The activation cannot be performed by members of the Omaha University fraternity as the group is not a chapter of the national fraternity, but a colony.

Pledges who will be activated include: Bill Allmen, Bill Federer, John Anderson, Don Haffner, John Karnes, Bill Besack, Emmett Shields and Gilbert Uhler.

Zetas To Activate

Zeta Tau Alpha sorority will devote this weekend to their activation, pledging, and White Violet banquet. These events will take place at the Blackstone Hotel.

Officers of the Gamma Mu chapter Jean Salladay, Marsha Jordan, Sheila Schwid, Carol Roberts, and Anne McConney will activate 23 last semester pledges. The ceremony will be from 7 p.m. to 12 midnight tonight and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. tomorrow.

Pink and white will be used to decorate the House and Garden room at the Blackstone for the White Violet banquet announced Janet Langhammer, social chairman.

The banquet will begin at 6 p.m. Sunday. Mrs. R. J. Alexander and Mrs. George Kiffin will be the principal speakers. Mrs. Kiffin, head of scholarship, will award the Zeta Tau Alpha pin from the chapter to the pledge with the highest scholastic average and a pennant to the active with the highest average. These winners will also be given two other gifts.

Mrs. Mary Longo will present a gift from the Zeta Tau Alpha alumnae chapter to the pledge or active with the highest average. Dean Mary Parou Young will be an honored guest.

Zeta pledges are observing courtesy week this week. Rules for the week were set up by active members at their Feb. 11 meeting.

At the Wednesday night meeting the pledges presented a skit to the actives.

Sports Club Meets Feb. 23

Omaha University Water Sports Club will hold their second organized meeting next Monday at the J. C. C.

The 7 p.m. meeting will feature both business and pleasure for the members. This is the last meeting at which members will be accepted until the fall semester.

At the close of the meeting the members will begin the scheduled plans to take instruction in either Senior Life Saving or Water Safety.

Chairman of the program is Dale Buchanan. New chairmen were appointed at the last meeting. They are Janet Johnson and Ken Olson, in charge of social activities.

President Ken Borcher announced that the yearly dues will be $5. Though this fee is high, it is designed to limit membership to only those interested in being active in the club. The group also plans to begin a fund of purchase sporting equipment later.

The students at Porto University, Portugal, have a solution to the problem of final exams. They merely want to abolish them. The students contend that talented students often flunk the exams, while the mediocre students get good grades.

Instead of the exams, students suggested that professors judge them on the basis of practical exercises given through the semester.

VanDerbur to Speak At Greek Banquet

Sororities and fraternities will observe Omaha University's Greek Week, Mar. 16 through 21. A banquet for all Greeks will be held Mar. 20, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the auditorium. The theme of the banquet is "Greeks of Today Are Leaders of Tomorrow."

Francis S. VanDerbur, chairman of national Greek Week observances, will be the guest speaker. The sorority and fraternity with the highest scholastic average will receive scholarship awards. Pledges and actives with the highest scholarship averages will be awarded individual awards.

Athletic awards for football and basketball tournament winners will be presented to the fraternities. Recognition keys will be given to members of the Interfraternity Council.

Patsy Cahow and Pat Johannsen are chairman of food and decorations respectively.

Greeks will conclude their week of observance with a dance which will be held at the Livestock Exchange ballroom. Lee Baron and his orchestra will play for the 9 p.m. to midnight dance.

Duane Post is dance chairman. Sheila Schwid heads the skit committee. The committee is composed of one representative from each sorority and fraternity. Jody Pierce is designing the decorations, and Donna Edstrand is publicity and window chairman.

Decorations at the banquet will include the fraternity and sorority signs on the stage. The theme of the week will be carried out by a large poster on the stage curtain.

Freshman Joins Realm of Royalty

The idea that journalists are hardly qualified to touch the hem of royalty has been blasted to bits.

Barbara Hagerman, assistant photo editor of the Gateway, was one of 10 countesses who reigned at the Mardi Gras celebration Monday evening in Council Bluffs.

The pert freshman has had eight years of professional art training. As proof of her ability, she designed the gown she wore at the celebration.

As choice of activities, she lists painting and sculpturing; but, Gateway pictures will testify to the fact that she also wields a mean Graphic. For outdoor activities she prefers skiing and skating.

The Mardi Gras is sponsored annually by the Central Chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal Church on the Monday before Lent.

Women's Bidding Adds New Pledges to Sororities

Thirty-three women have signed up in the Dean's Office for open bidding to sororities. Tuesday, Feb. 13, had signed preferences.

The registration has been going on since Feb. 1 and ended last Monday. All names of girls were approved by the Panhellenic Council and then turned over to the sororities.

Girls have until the last week of February to sign preferences, but all girls must be pledged before Mar. 2 to the organizations.

The organization and the girls pledged to them are: Alpha Xi, Shirley Johnson, Shirley Oathout, Joan Olsen, and Glenna Sloan. New Chi Omega pledges are Carolyn Chapman, and Barbara Meyer. Pledged to Sigma Kappa are Shirley Barnum, Marie Jipp and Pat Summers. Zeta Tau pledged four girls. They are Sandra Bock, Isabelle Herr, Pat Norman and Pat Vorel.

This semester has been the first open bidding at the University. Second semester rushing has always been carried on in the past with girls having formal rush dates with members of the sorority.

Open bidding was first suggested to the Panhellenic Council at the November meeting. Plans were formulated so that the girls' names could be registered in the Dean's Office to avoid confusion about eligibility. The new open bidding has been termed a success, with more girls signing up than in any past second semester rushing.

Different Styles in Specs Highlight the New Look

There's an old saying that "men don't make passes at girls who wear glasses." Well, with the many new styles in eye glasses these days, you can definitely wear glasses and receive passes.

A slight disorder in the eyes is nothing to be ashamed of, for it was discovered in a recent survey that 20 per cent of the teenagers in this country wear or need to wear glasses. So don't feel that your glasses are cutting out your date life, because it isn't true.

What style of rims should be worn seems to be the question that optometrists are asked everyday. A well-known fashion magazine has a few words to say on that subject.

Rims Suit Coloring

If you have a high forehead, wear glasses with a straight brow-line accent. For you ladies with dainty facial features, plaid rims will do wonders. Light colored hair and complexion can be accented by light tortoise shell rims that point up slightly at the sides. If your eye brows tend to raise slightly, why not get specs with an uplift to them. Get striped ones to accent your brows.

Of course, wearing glasses is not for beauty sake alone. Glasses should be made up by prescription only, and by a qualified optometrist. Then after you have the lens ready, pick out the frames that you think will be best suited for you.

Glasses can give a girl pretty eye accessories to go with her clothes accessories. Here are some hints to those glasses-clad gals that will make wearing glasses a pleasure, not a short-coming or a handicap.

There are really so many patterns and shades of rims to pick from that it's hard to decide. You might pick Chantilly lace, mother of pearl, polka dot, confetti sprinkles or stripes. What colors do you have a choice of? Well, there's butterscotch, mint green, opaque pastels or darker colors, crystal designs or cinnamon color.

A couple of essentials to good looking specs being noticed are flattering hairdo to yourself. Remember that your hairdo will be just as attractive with or without glasses.

Wear hats that are off the face, wide brims or with many ribbons or bows. Be careful of your eye makeup. Put it on the accent your eyes, not to make them outstanding.

Naturally you can't have a new pair of frames to wear with every outfit, but you can select a pair that is economical, has a subtle shape and a color that will agree with most of your wardrobe.

American Schools Surprise Student

A 24-year old Swedish immigrant is having more than his share of trouble with American slang expressions. He is Carl Lindquist, an Omaha University student, who came to Omaha from his native home in Kristianstad, Sweden, five months ago.

One night while Carl was sitting at the dinner table, he was joking with his landlady when she commented that she thought Carl was "pulling her leg." Carl stated that he knew what pull and leg meant, but he said that when he looked under the table, he could see that she was very much mistaken. This embarrassed Carl because she thought "I was flirting with her."

Engineering Major

An engineering major at OU, Carl commented that "the courses at OU are not as concentrated as they are in Swedish schools. He explained that in the Swedish educational system, there are two types of schools, public and private. Children go to a private school for their kindergarten for one or two years depending upon their intelligence. When they are either six or seven, they start to public school. And according to Carl, most of the children are seven.

After the first few years of schooling, the pupil takes an intelligence test and continues four more years of grade school and five years of high school.

Government Pays

Carl stated that he had four years of grade school which was paid for by the government, and the five years of high school.

The fundamentals of schooling take up the first two years of high school. During the next two years, Carl stated that with his other subjects, he took a year of English and French which are required for graduation. In his fourth year, he continued his study of French.

Graduate at 16

The fifth year of high school is devoted to a review of the past four years and preparation for college. At the age of 15 or 16, students receive a degree which is comparable to the high school diploma in the United States.

Carl has had two years of Business Administration in Sweden and has received a degree from a

Swedish University. "I can write business letters in English, German, French and Swedish, and can also take shorthand and type in all the languages but French."

When asked about his citizenship plans, Carl said that he intended to become a citizen at "some future date."

Dating Situation

When asked about the dating situation in Sweden, Carl replied that "it is more serious in Sweden than in the United States. A girl who dates a lot or plays the field is no good in Sweden."

Carl concluded that in his short acquaintance of five months of American life that he is greatly impressed and has no intentions of going back to his native land.

Unique Bookstore Operates on Honor

College officials have begun trusting the students more and more.

Hamilton College of Clinton, New York, has opened a self-service, honor-system bookshop—which officials believe to be the first at an American College.

The shop has neither clerks nor cashiers, and its shelves are stocked only with paper-bound books priced no higher than 65 cents each.

The college said that the shop, located in the campus library, features a reading room atmosphere. Students can browse at will and drop the pay for their purchases into an open cash box.

However, no statement has been issued yet from the College on the financial success of the venture.

Tolerance is the suspicion that the other fellow might be right after all.—Anonymous.

Student Activities Cause Headaches

News from other campuses indicate that all schools have similar problems in student-faculty relations.

The faculty at Wheaton, Ill., College has just recently turned down a student council proposal which would have permitted unlimited class cuts. The supporters of the plan felt that the unlimited cuts would have given students a healthier attitude toward classes; while the opposition clamorously claimed that the statistics indicating good attendance records at schools having unlimited cuts were "more theoretical than anything else."

At the University of West Virginia, basketball fans are passing out "sportsmanship" sheets at the games in an effort to get more humane treatment of referees.

Snowball Trouble

A few weeks ago, fraternity and dormitory men at Northwestern University got carried away. They staged a series of spontaneous snowball fights and when the fun was over, about 200 windows were broken.

The dean of men at the school stated that repairs will be paid by all the students participating in the fights. In the meantime, with as many as 64 windows broken in one house, members enjoyed the fresh winter air.

International universities as well as American schools have problems which must be worked out.

Money - -

The monetary problem cropped up in a Copenhagen, Denmark, university. It seems that because of the high cost of news print, the student paper "studenterbladet-Akademikerne" has stopped publication. Could it be the title took up so much space that there was no room for advertising?

Sign of Spring . . .

Not that it's illegal, but . . . an enthusiastic golfer was seen trudging along the snowy Elmwood Park golf course with one golf club clutched in his hand.

Waokiya Honors Leadership Week

Sophomore girls, who may still consider themselves a little below the notice of seniors, have had a real thrill this week. Via phone calls and personal messages, they have been told that if they keep up their scholastic average and continue in social activities, and if they join social groups and maintain their present scholastic standing, they may be eligible for Waokiya, women's leadership society.

The group has designated this week as Leadership Week and have attempted to stimulate interest among underclass coeds who have shown possibilities of being eligible to join the honor group. Girls qualifying for the group are "tapped" in their junior or senior year.

Each spring, the group, along with Omicron Delta Kappa, men's leadership fraternity, sponsor the All-School Sing, at which time each group "taps" new members.

This is probably a logical conclusion to the fact that the library and the Student Lounge have been crowded with freshmen and sophomore coeds hitting the books.

They probably envision themselves being bestowed with the honor of being tapped for Waokiya.

Garlough Reveals Best Class Ever

Dr. Leslie Garlough, Science professor, has issued a statement which should be encouraging to Science majors and students in Science classes.

Commenting on the Biometry class he had last semester, Dr. Garlough said that "I've just finished teaching the best class I've ever had."

Thirteen of the 15 students completed the semester's work with A's and remaining two students received B's.

In their final "and very difficult problem," one student had a perfect paper and three others were near perfect.

The only catch to the above evidence is whether Dr. Garlough is an easy teacher or the class was exceptional.

Safety Failure Halts Elevator

The University is having trouble with the "ups and downs" of the school elevator.

The maintenance workers have been spending on the average of two hours every day fixing the elevator. The main trouble seems to be that the automatic safety device cuts off the current when students on all floors are pushing the button to get the elevator when it is already in use.

When the elevator was first installed, there was no public use, with keys being issued to the faculty and physically handicapped students.

Trouble began when students began borrowing the keys and having duplicates made.

This action forced officials to take the lock off and open the elevator to the public.

Now the automatic safety device trouble has caused officials to believe that unless better and more thoughtful care is taken when using the elevator, that the lock will have to be put back on.

Four Personnel Earn Civil Defense Wings

Even the women are taking to the air!

Four of the University's staff members have received their wings from the Civil Air Defense School. The girls are Jean Cunningham, Lois Meyer, Jackie Bevelheimer and Bonnie Baumfalk.

The wings were awarded to the girls after the completion of approximately fifteen weeks of schooling.

If you'd like some tips on flying, just drop in the Registrar's Office, the College of Adult Education or the College of Education.

Confucius said, "One good picture is worth 10,000 words."

No better example of that statement could be found, than the above picture. You shouldn't have to be told what it is, but if you just want to satisfy your curiosity, it's a picture of the Playland Park roller coaster taken from the top looking directly below.

It was inadvertently omitted from last week's story of the disgruntled Tomahawk photo editor.
